GDA - MASTERS TOURNAMENT

HENRY ZAPATA WINS THIRD TOURNAMENT

It is evident darts in Gibraltar is flourishing like never before going by the number of youngsters taking the game most seriously. An example was their presence at the recent Stan James and Stanjames.com tournament recently held in Gibraltar.

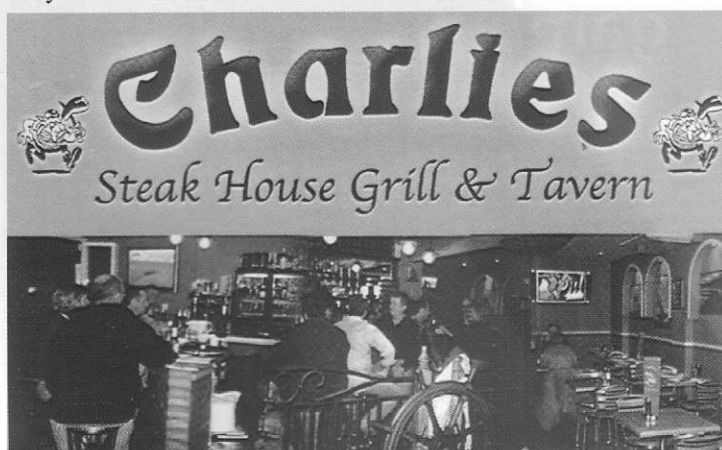

Very recently the GDA organised its third ranking tournament, the Masters Singles held at the College cosmos FC premises where just the young guns progressed through from the quarter finals.

The two first upsets of the night came very early on with Dyson Parody defeating long standing champion George Federico and Justin Broton doing likewise against the other die hard, Francis Taylor. Both youngsters winning by very close scores.

It is evident George has to pull up his socks in the last remaining ranking tournament otherwise he will miss out on all the World class International events of the year.

With one more ranking event remaining in the GDA calendar, the heat is very much on to see who will be the top 13 players to represent Gibraltar and most important, in what events.

This last tournament had Henry Zapata the player on form having made comfortable victims of all his opponents. In the quarters he defeated George Ramos 4-2, followed by a 5-1 win against Dyson Parody in the semis.

In the final, Henry had the going much tougher than expected having to overcome a 0-2 deficit against the other finalist Danny Peach. Following the 2-all score the match went to a leg for leg battle with the score going to 5-all. Henry managing to outscore his opponent emerged victorious with a 6-5 score for a well earned victory.

This was Danny's second final on the trot enough to give him valuable points in the ranking table. Like Henry, Danny also comfortably coasted to the final.
