The 1st singles ranking event scheduled this season saw a record attendance for the best part of four seasons. This was due to a decision made by the committee to raise subscriptions and make the rankings free to entry to all registered members (over 18). This proved to be the right choice. With the record attendance for many years, including over 33% of registered members participating, it was another eventful night.

The competition showed strong signs of it returning to its former glory, with the games changed to what they used to be previously (which was decided at a recent captains meeting): best of 5 up to the quarter finals, best of 7 the quarterfinals, best of 9 the semi-finals and best of 11 the final.

George Ramos, an experienced veteran put up a class act on this occasion by defeating a high number of top players on his route to the final. These players included George Federico (seed 3), Alfred King, Justin Stagno and Justin Broton (seed 2).

Dylan's, who was the other finalist also had a tough run to the final, beating Manolo Asquez,

Alan Kimberley, Dyson Parody and Francis Taylor (seed 4) on his way.

It was a long night but well worth it. We saw many players and spectators staying to watch up to the last minute of darts. Although George Ramos put up a very gallant fight in the final, Dylan proved he is an outstanding darts player and never an easy opponent. He beat George 6 to 1 and in doing so maintains his no 1 spot on the rock.
