GDA CHARITY TOURNAMENTS

BROTON AND DUO WIN LAST TOURNAMENTS

Recently Justin Broton and Dylan Duo won the Lifeline Edwards and Mount Alvernia Charity Tournaments respectively organised by the GDA at the College Cosmo Club premises.

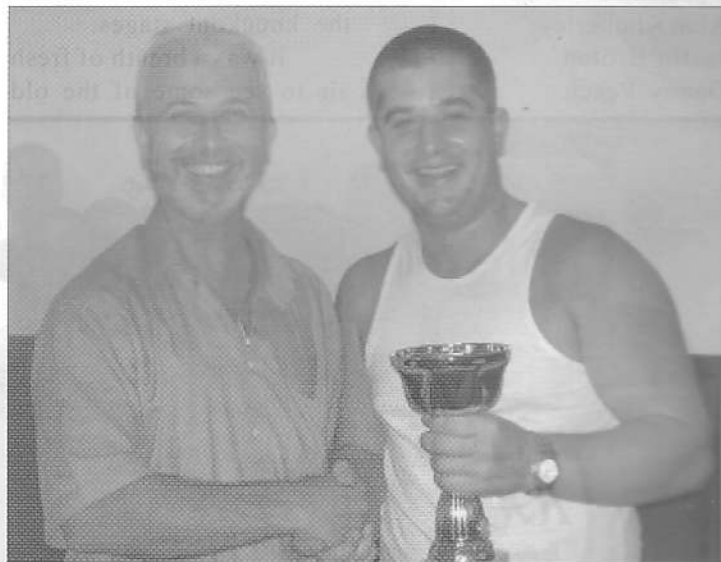

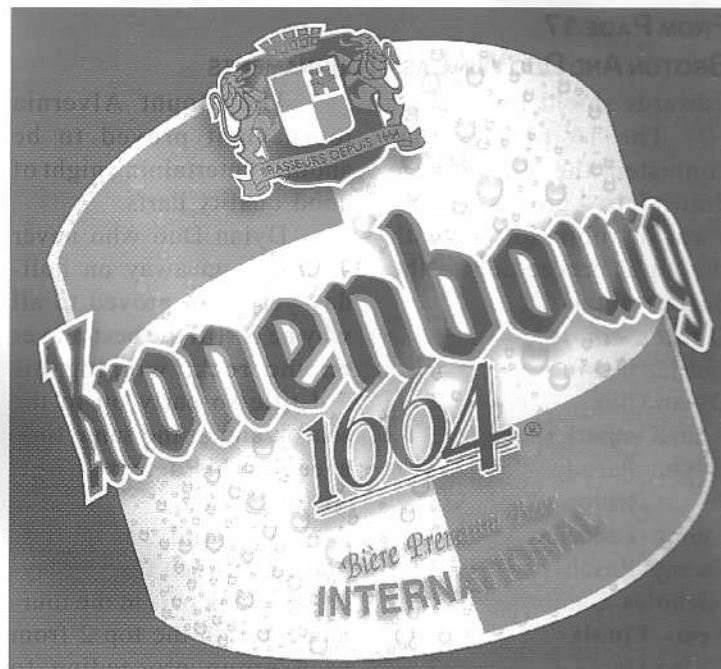

These were the last of a series of annual charity tournaments organised by the association. The heavy schedule during the course of the season left no option to the committee but to drop certain charity tournaments to ensure a smoother running of all domestic competitions. In light of this, the committee decided, so that some support would still be given towards local charities, these events would be amalgamated into one, "The GBC Open Day" and as such, it would benefit both charities and the GDA alike.

As mentioned Justin Broton won the Lifeline Edwards tournament just a few days before the start of the 2006/07 season follow-

George Federico presents the Mount Alvernia Trophy to Dylan Duo winning his 3-1 success over Gib's top dart Dylan Duo.

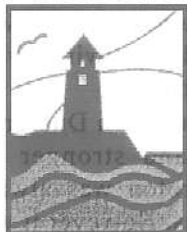

Duo started off winning the throw at the bull and with his usual consistency took the first leg. Broton nonetheless came out fighting and levelled the game.

The third leg saw Broton struggling on 214 points to go whilst Duo was sitting quite comfortably on an outshot. But a good 174 (T20, T20, T18) score left him double 20 in his next shot and a chance he took to place the score at 2-1 in his favour. Evidently that win boosted Broton's morale who went on to claim the fourth leg with a good 14 darts and with it the Lifeline

The Mount Alvernia tournament proved to be another entertaining night of good quality darts.

Dylan Duo who never seems to go away on holiday yet again proved to all why he is still the best player on the rock, winning his 3rd title so early on in the season and at the same time avenging his defeat against Justin Broton.

A round robin was played between the 16 players that took part in the tournament with the top 2 from each group proceeding to the knockout stages.

It was a breath of fresh air to see some of the old

Though Broton felt comfortable on the night, Duo was just too strong for him.

In the 1st Leg with the draw having been lost throwing at the bull (25 by Justin/ Bull by Dylan) it was a tight game. Broton was left on a double with Dylan winning that leg.

From the on Duo grew stronger and stronger although Broton was always on his toes. However it was not to be and Dylan won the 2nd leg with a good steady 14 darter also taking the last leg to make it 3-0 earning him the "Mount Alvernia" Shield for keeps.
