

COLLEGE OPEN 2007 21st SEPTEMBER 2007

“Dylan Duo strikes early on at a pre-season competition by winning the College Open 2007 singles”.

semi-finalists (L to R):
Roy Asquez, Alan
Kimberley, Francis
Taylor, Dylan Duo

Roy Asquez made an interesting return to darts after a few years since he suffered a shoulder injury which forced him to retire.

A good return to form as he managed to reach the semi-finals to then battle it out against the notoriously challenging veteran “Francis Taylor”.

The game went all the way to the last leg. A high scoring game and a pleasure for spectators to watch a good quality darts match. It was however Francis’s experience that inevitably took him to the final (unlucky Roy, you made him sweat).

The other semi saw Alan Kimberley vs Dylan Duo. The 1st leg went to Dylan and the 2nd leg was an on and off affair but Dylan kept himself slightly in front all the time.

Alan heart on sleeve as per usual was close to finishing several legs, but tell that to Dylan who had other ideas and that was to reach the final!

In the final, Francis won the toss and started strong with a 16 dart leg. Unbeknown to him at the time, it all went the other way after that. However close the game was (both averaging close to 26 per dart), Dylan just managed to pip him at the post each time (except the final leg with Dylan carrying out a clinical 15 dart leg).

Commiserations to Francis Taylor, Congratulations to Dylan Duo!
